'Aha'ui Koa Ānuenuē (AKA) became an IRS designated 501(c)(3) non-profit organization in 1973. Inspired by Hawaii's former Governor Burns' personal donation to support UH Athletics in 1967, the organization finally came into being in subsequent years with the mission "To be the leading developer of programs and people to raise money in support of University of Hawaii student-athletes ensuring the viability of the University of Hawaii Athletic Department."

AKA is comprised of and supported by people who have a passion for college athletics and a deep desire to see University of Hawaii Student-Athletes succeed both on and off the field. Traits like humility, competitiveness, pride, and dedication are not only learned, but reinforced through athletics. There are literally thousands of UH Student-Athletes who have gone on to become physicians, lawyers, tradespeople, and even non-profit employees, all working for the betterment of our communities and society in general.
